Waminda Newsletter

Our Mission

Our mission here at Waminda is to support and enrich the lives of those living with disbility. Everything we do, we do to provide and exceptional participant experience. We are committed to creating an environment of respect, inclusion, and empowerment. We value diversity and promote equal opportunities for all participants to engage in their communities, build relationships, develop skills, and pursue their goals with confidence

JOKES OF THE MONTH

I said to the gym instructor, "Can you teach me to do the splits?" He said, "How flexible are you?" I said, "I can't make Tuesdays

Why did the math book go to the therapist?
Because it had a lot of problems.

Why did the melon jump into the lake?
It wanted to be a watermelon.

Whats happening ?

6th Jeans for Genes Day

7th Chinchilla Museum & BBQ Lunch

14th Lunch @ The Creek & Actives

15th Disco – Winter Wonderland

18th $3.00 Brew Morning Mingle

20th Daffodil Day

21st Group Bowling

27th Red Nose Day

28th Book Week Dress up & $5.00 Lunch

Birthdays of July

17th Diarmid
23rd Trevor
24th Thomas
27th Brendan R

Sharvana Boiteau

Hello, my name is Sharvana, and I am a Lead at Waminda, where I have proudly worked for over three years. I am passionate about supporting people of all ages and backgrounds, helping them feel empowered and valued.

Outside of my professional role, I am a devoted wife and mother of two. I enjoy expressing my creativity through a variety of projects and spending time nurturing my growing collection of plants.

Happy Birthday Waminda

In the month of July, Waminda celebrated their 48th birthday!

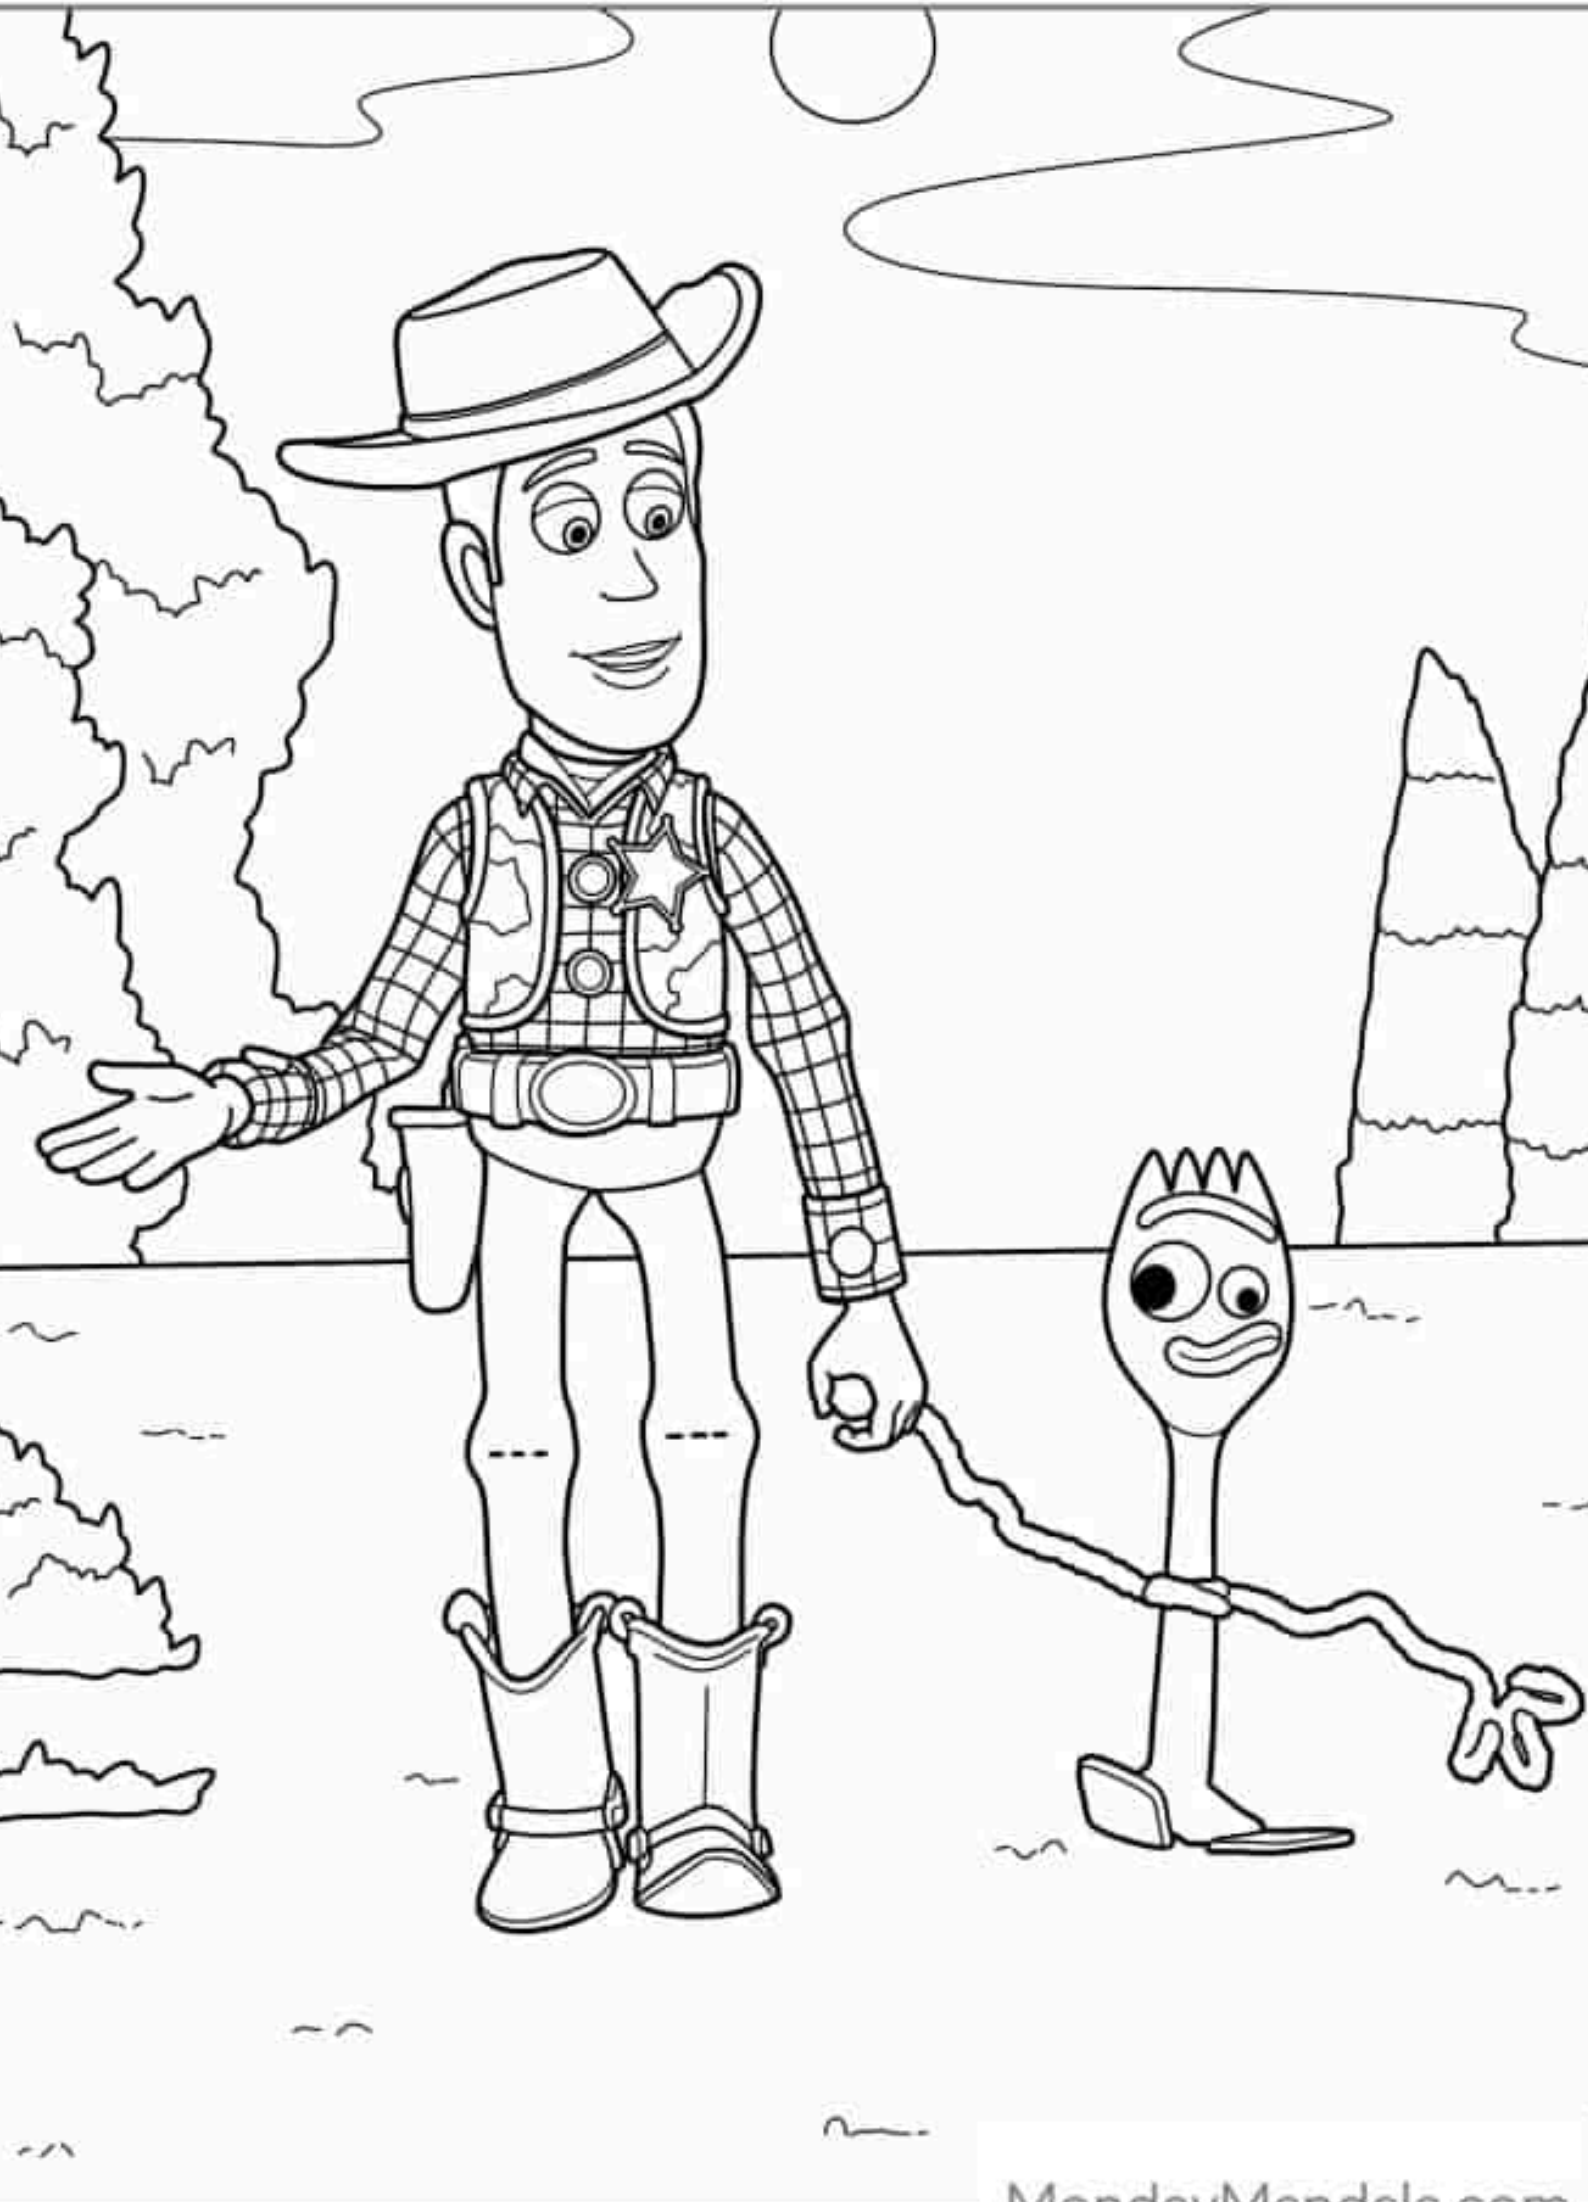

FUN FACTS ABOUT DISNEY!

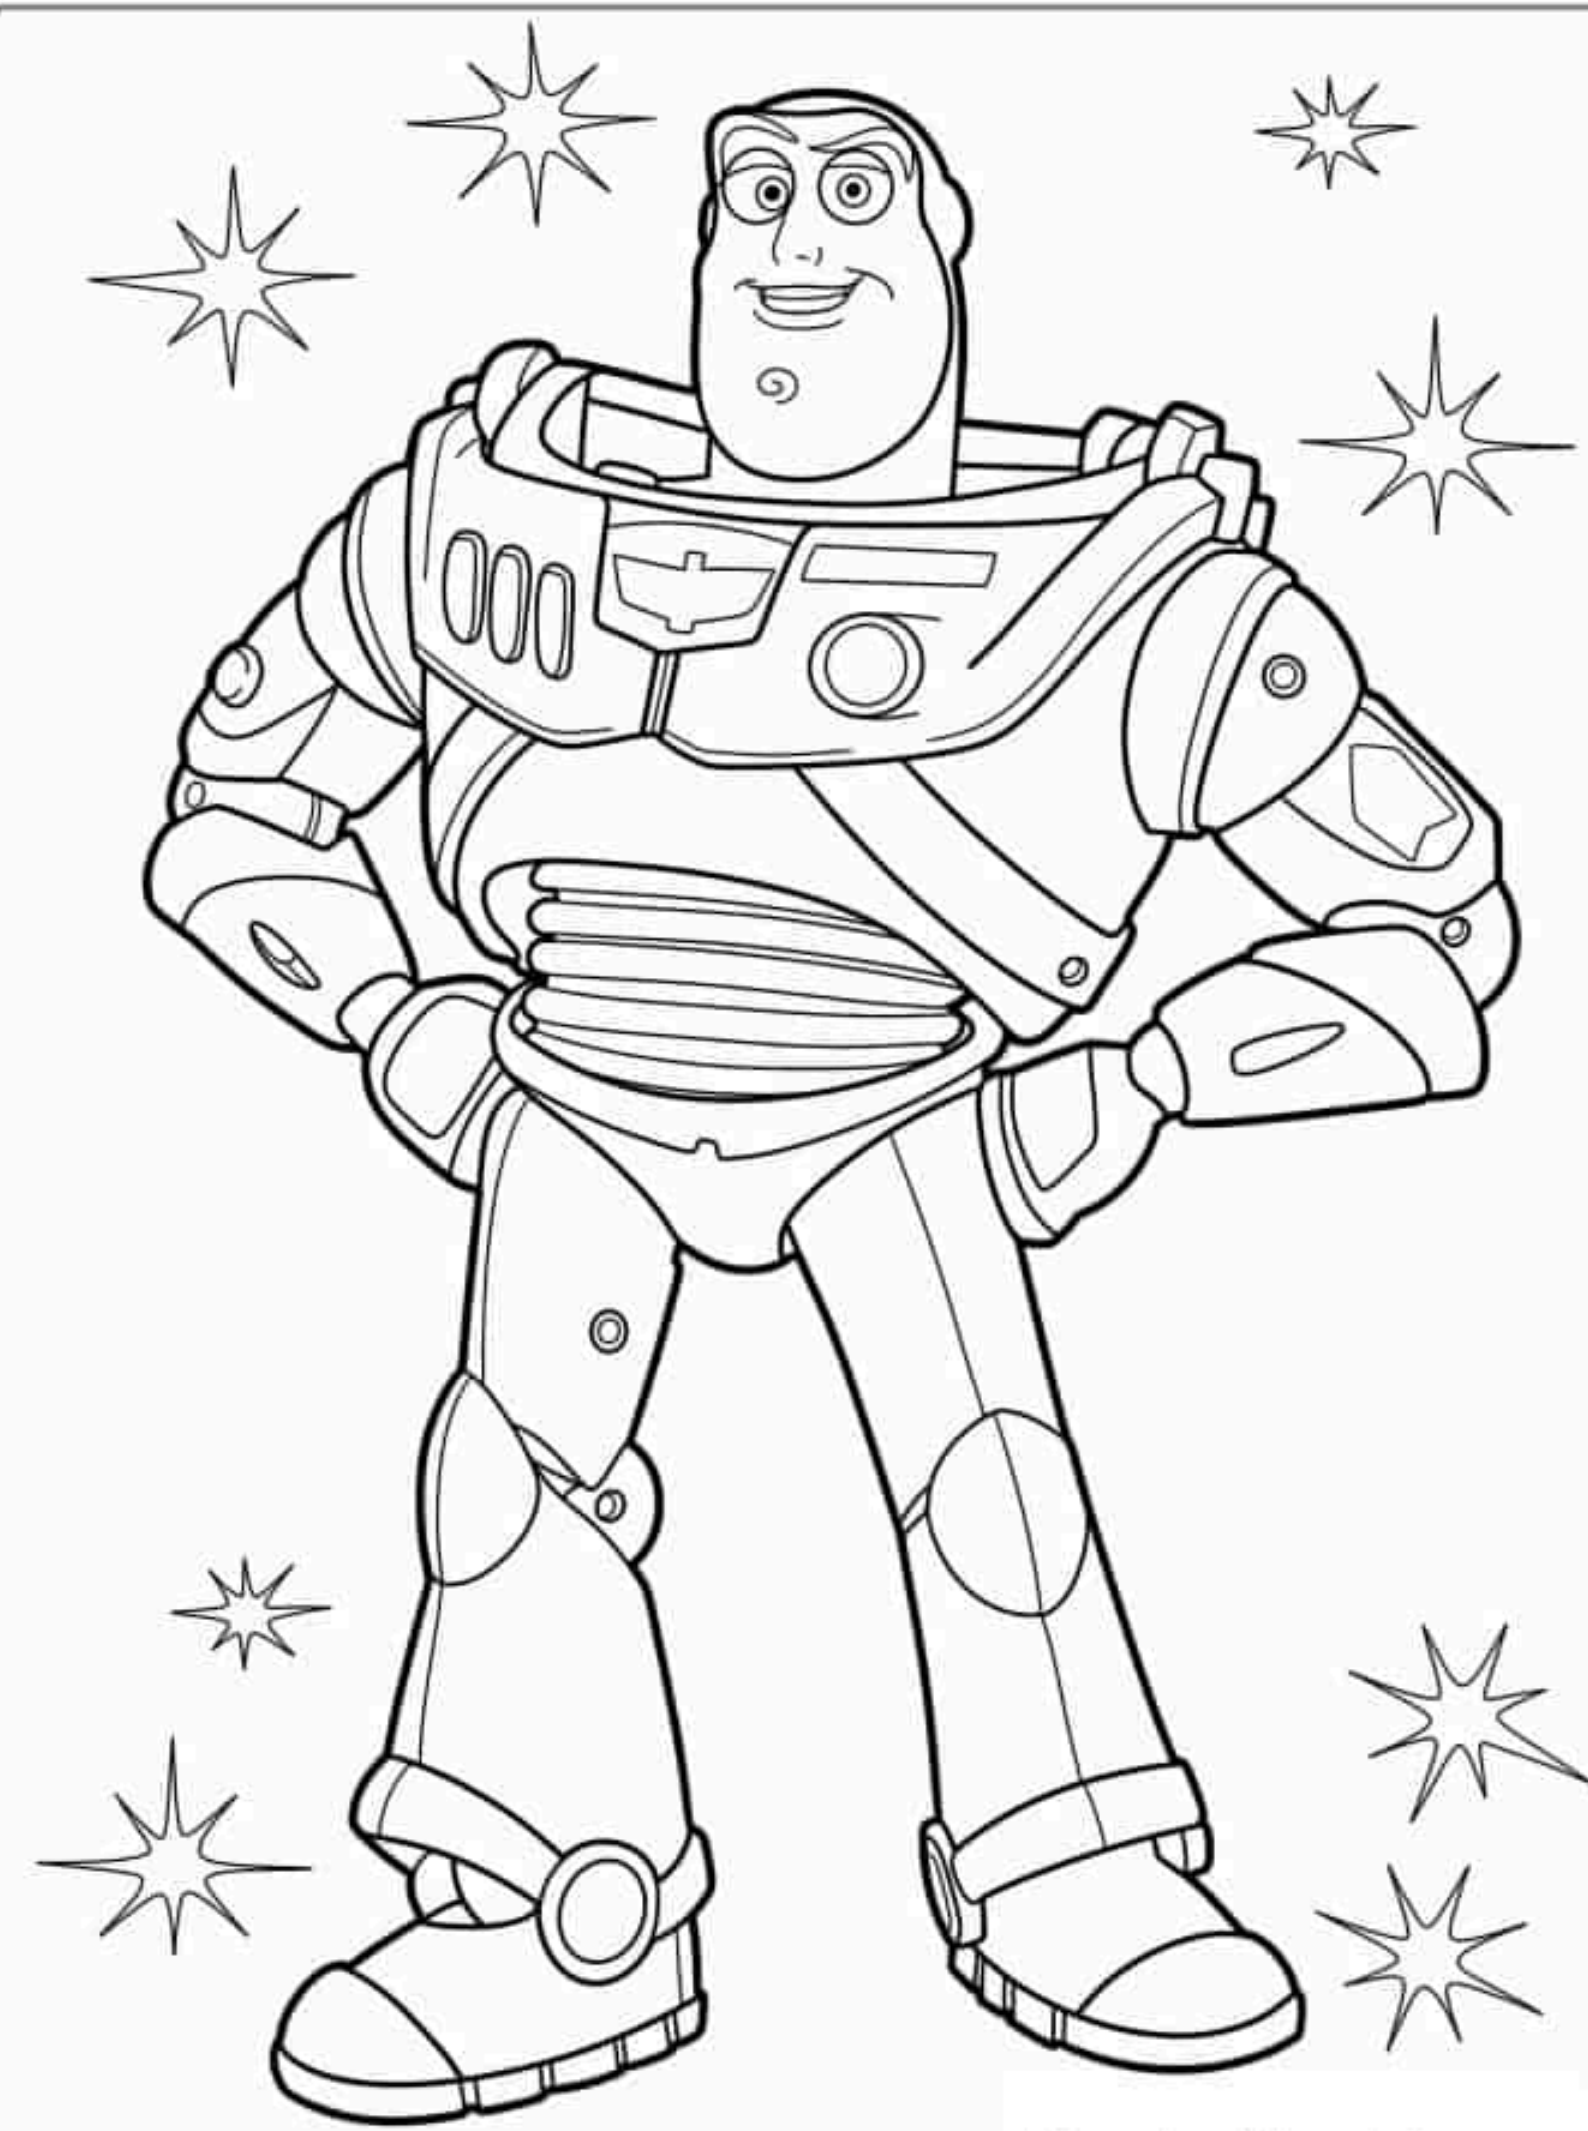

The iconic mouse was originally going to be named "Mortimer." It was Walt's wife, Lillian, who convinced him to change it to the much catchier "Mickey.

It would take 68 years to sleep in every single room at Disney World. That's two years longer than Walt's entire life!

Real lions were considered to be too quiet by the makers of The Lion King. The roars you hear are actually tigers.

MondayMandala.com

MondayMandala.com

MondayMandala.com